

City of Brunswick Committee/Commission Member Interest Form – February 2026

Name
Address
Phone Number
Email Address
of Years in Brunswick

I am applying for membership to (please check all that apply – if more than one is selected, please indicate order of preference):

- Board of Zoning Appeals (one member vacancy, one alternate vacancy) - Reviews variances and special exceptions of the City Zoning Code, along with claims of administrative error in the interpretation of the Zoning Code. Consists of three members and one alternate member appointed to staggered three-year terms.

- Economic Development Commission (one member vacancy) - Makes recommendations to the Mayor and Council of measures to enhance the economic well-being of the community, along with planning and executing various activities and educational events to further that goal. Consists of not more than seven members appointed to four-year terms.

- Ethics Commission (up to three member vacancies) - Tasked with administering the City Ethics Ordinance, which sets minimum standards of Ethical Conduct for City officials and employees, so as to ensure City business is conducted impartially and not subject to improper influences. Consists of three to five members appointed to staggered three-year terms.

- Finance and Utility Commission (up to one member vacancy) - Advises and makes recommendations to the Mayor and Council in matters pertaining to financial and utility activities. Consists of up to five citizen members appointed to four-year terms.

- Housing Advisory Committee (four – five member vacancies) - Reviews and monitors housing priorities, legislation, funding programs, and policy initiatives; discusses Brunswick’s current and future housing needs; and provides recommendations to the Mayor and Council for proactive planning. Consists of four to five members.

